Makes numerous arrests in a Gang related Robbery

On February 22, 2006, a pizza delivery driver was robbed in York County.

This offense occurred in the Pines of York Apartment complex around 8:30pm. The delivery driver was called to make a pizza delivery to an address in the apartment complex. Shortly after he arrived he was robbed and beaten by four black males.

The victim sustained numerous cuts and bruises from the beating. The injuries did not appear to be serious enough to be hospitalized, but did require stitches.

Deputies and Investigators responded to the area. Shortly after arriving, Investigators took a 17 year old York County juvenile in custody and charged him with Robbery, Maiming by Mob, Wearing a Mask in Public, Conspiracy to Commit a Felony, and Street Gang Participation.

Between 2/23/06 and 2/24/06 several other participants were arrested for this robbery. The subject that called in the order was also charged with Robbery and Conspiracy to Commit a Felony. The four subjects involved directly with the robbery are alleged to be part of a street gang and are residents of York County.
